

ADSAFETYCONSULTANTS.COM

Part of

SAFETY STATEMENT TIPS.

- Your Safety Statement should be specific to your workplace.
- Your Safety Statement should be completed by a competent person.
 - Generic Safety Statements have no value.
- Your Safety Statement should have a list of specific policies and procedures to assist with health and safety compliance at work.
- Your Safety Statement should contain a Risk Assessment which adequately covers your workplace risks in terms of identification and risk control.
 - Safety Statements must comply with Irish Health and Safety legislation namely the Safety, Health and Welfare at Work 2005 and associated regulations.
- Safety Statements from other jurisdictions are not compliant in Ireland.
- All employees should be made aware of your Safety Statement.
- Your Safety Statement should be reviewed at least annually or more regularly as appropriate.

Email us 24/ 7 info@adsafetyconsultants.com